IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

The P. and M. Lodge of Fredonia will hold its annual picnic Thursday, August 18th, at Cat Run, and everybody is cordially invited to attend.

The Fl. mouth Congregational church, Sunday school and Home Missionary society will hold their annual picnic at Rigol park Thursday afternoon and evening.

The annual picnic of the druggists of the city will be held August 25th at Beech Island, Buckeye Lake.

The Ladies' Auxiliary, Knights of St. John, gave their lawn party last evening at the home of Miss Annie Flannigan in West Main street and in spite of the inclement weather there was a good attendance.

While Rev. G. W. Applegate was conducting prayer services in the new Woodside Presbyterian church in Woods avenue Wednesday evening a number of the ladies of the church were in the old church on the same lot making preparations for a surprise which they gave him after the meeting in celebration of his birthday anniversary. Mr. Applegate went with some of the members of his church to the old building on the pretext of discussing business affairs and as they entered the door those from within turned on the lights and the pastor was completely surprised. About seventy-five or a hundred members of the church were present and spent a delightful evening, during the course of which a daily repast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. James Simpson of North Sixteenth street entertained with a porch party honoring their house guest Miss Inez Lampton, who returned Wednesday to her home in Detroit, Michigan. The soft lights of many Japanese lanterns strung on the lawn and veranda cast a subdued glow over the merry scene. Music and games furnished the chief pleasures of the evening and the prizes at the close of a contest were awarded to Miss Freda Wachenheim and Mr. Lee Stevens. A dainty luncheon was served at a late hour.

The guest list included Miss Lampton, Misses Ida Schenk, Bertha Owens, Laura Hoffman, Freda Wachenheim, Nellie Fleming, Leona Dutton of Marion, Messrs. Ernest Crawford, Leo Stevens, J. F. Crittton, Walter Crawford, George Ebbert and Harry Warner.

Miss Mary Anderson of North Fourth street will entertain a number of her friends with a thimble party on Saturday afternoon.

The Unity Sewing Circle of the B. of A. was entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. Terrell of Bolen avenue. After the roll call of officers, the members spent an evening sewing and in a social manner. During the evening the officers entertained the Circle with several prize raffle selections. A dainty lunch was served. The next meeting will be held at the Outside cleanliness is less than half the battle. A man may scrub himself a dozen times a day, and still be unclean. Good health means cleanliness not only outside, but inside. It means a clean stomach, clean bowels, clean blood, a clean liver, and new, clean, healthy tissues. The man who is clean in this way will look it and act it. He will work with energy and think clean, clear, healthy thoughts.

A Clean Man

He will never be troubled with liver, lung, stomach or blood disorders. Dyspepsia and indigestion originate in unclean stomachs. Blood diseases are found where there is unclean blood. Consumption and bronchitis mean unclean lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

prevents these diseases. It makes a man's insides clean and healthy. It cleans the digestive organs, makes pure, clean blood, and clean, healthy flesh.

It restores tone to the nervous system, and cures nervous exhaustion and prostration. It contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. Constipation is the most unclean uncleanliness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure it. They never gripe. Easy to take as candy.

Heart and Home Talks

Women and Negligees.

This is negligee weather. Hundreds of women all over the land are going about the house in the morning in some cool, easy negligee, the favorite being a little kimono, a sacque and a cool wash skirt. If a negligee down town is necessary, immediately upon their return they throw off their hot, tight clothes with a sigh of relief and slip into a negligee with a long breath of satisfaction. They may dress up for the afternoon or evening, but it is with longing glances at the negligee as they do so, and a mental wish that they still might wear it.

Men, as a rule, do not like the negligee habit among their women folks. Some are resigned and say nothing, but the majority look or speak their disapprobation or disgust. One husband went so far, in a desperate effort to cure his wife of the habit, as to appear at breakfast in his bath robe. When she looked her amazement, he maintained stoutly he didn't see why he shouldn't wear a bath robe if she persisted in wearing those loose, frowsy things.

Men do not understand why women are addicted to the negligee habit. It is not that women desire to wear a negligee because it is a negligee. But woman's dress is, in the main, uncomfortable. It takes a long time to put it on. There is infinite minutia of collars, belts, hooks and eyes, buttons, pins, to adjust and fasten. Dressing is a long and tiresome process. These are the reasons women want to get from the dress expected of them to the quick comfort of a negligee. If the usual dress of woman were as comfortable as man's, and as easily put on, she would no more wear negligees as a regular thing than does a man his bath robe.

Of course, man would not wear such uncomfortable dress as woman's.

was presented to Mrs. Seales by Miss Kate Evans on behalf of those present. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

LAMSON-FERGUSON.
On Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock the marriage of Miss Louise Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Ferguson, of Granville, to Mr. Harold Lamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. R. Lamson, of Toledo, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents. Dr. C. J. Baldwin, pastor of the First Baptist church of Granville, officiated, using there ring service. The ceremony was performed before the fireplace in the living room by the light of candles set in candelabra. The fireplace was banked with honeysuckle, asparagus, fern and other greenery, and formed a pleasant background.

The bridal march from Lohengrin, was played by Miss Ruth McKibbin, and the words were sung by Miss Pearl Ferguson. Miss Ferguson, crowned in white, walked in advance of the eight girls who, gowned alternately in pink and white carried ropes of snail, thus forming the aisle through which the bride and her maid of honor passed.

Miss Mary Ferguson was maid of honor and Mr. Lowell Haskin of Toledo, was best man.

The color scheme of pink and white was carried out completely in all the rooms, and the appointments of the bride's table were especially attractive. Pink and white sweet peas formed a square centerpiece from which rose a glass candelabra with pink shades. The place cards were hand decorated and bore the monogram of the bride and groom, entwined in pink roses.

At the bride's table were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Lamson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lamson, Misses Helen Lamson, Marion Lamson, Dee Thornton, Ruth McKibbin, Pearl Ferguson, Mary Ferguson, Messrs. Lowell Haskin, W. F. Chamberlin, Robert Lamson, Stewart McClelland.

Besides the guests from Newark and Granville there were present from a distance, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. R. Lamson, Miss Helen Lamson and guest, Miss Carolyn Holland, of Arkansas; Mr. Robert Lamson, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lamson and daughter, Alice Louise, Miss Mary Lamson, Mrs. Julius Lamson and daughters, Miss Miriam and Miss Kathryn, Mr. Lowell Haskin, and Mrs. Nichols, all of Toledo; Miss Betty Spencer of Dayton, Mr. W. F. Chamberlin of Dayton and Mr. Stewart McClelland of Fredericktown, O. Immediately after supper had been served, Mr. and Mrs. Lamson left for the northeastern part of the state and a trip down the St. Lawrence river.

PRESTON-WILLIAMS.
Mrs. Silas W. Preston of Alexandria has announced the marriage of her granddaughter, Miss Cora Ellen Williams, to Mr. Edwin Forrest Preston, which took place at the Wells residence last Thursday. The happy couple left at once for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will make their future home. The best wishes of a host of friends go with them.

READY RELIEF ASSURED.

Patient—Yes, Doctor, it hurts me to breathe, in fact, the only trouble now seems to be with my breath.
Physician—All right, I'll give you something that will soon stop that. Good Housekeeping.

I'm doing my best to get ahead, but I feel like a lowly snail as I drag my seventh cockle.

Entered as second class matter March 20, 1892, at the postoffice at Newark, Ohio, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Aug. 11 In American History.
1807—Robert Fulton's boat, the Clermont, steamed up to Albany. Fulton first became known in the maritime world as the inventor of military torpedoes and submarine war craft. The Clermont, which was to establish steam navigation, was built in New York, but her engine was of English construction. The success of the Clermont was followed by a multiplication of steamboats, and numerous claimants for the honors awarded Fulton as the father of steam navigation were heard from.
1808—Thaddeus Stevens, statesman, died in Washington; born 1792.
1808—American attack on San Juan, Porto Rico, repulsed.
1908—Ira D. Sankey, singing evangelist, died; born 1840.

ASKED IN VAIN.

An appeal was made to the platform committee of the convention at Columbus by J. A. Robinson in behalf of the Ohio Federation of Labor to have five labor planks put in the state Republican platform. The five planks demanded are: The initiative and referendum; a non-partisan judiciary act; a workman's compensation act; an act to limit hours of working women; and an act for the inspection of boilers.

Look in the platform which Dick and Wade Ellis and Burton prepared, submitted to Taft before seen in Columbus, read to the convention by Dick and adopted without a dissenting vote, and see how many of these labor planks you will find there.

A bill to limit the hours of workingmen was introduced in the house last winter by a Republican member, Evans of Cuyahoga county, was favorably reported by the house committee on labor, but was left on the house calendar untouched when the legislature finally adjourned. A Republican legislature would not pass a bill of that kind, the state Republican convention refused to put such a plank in its platform but did say in its platform, "We commend the present Ohio general assembly for its wise and effective legislation," thereby approving the legislature's acts of omission as well as its acts of commission.

CATCH THE CRIMINALS.

The deplorable conditions in Columbus are commented on in the editorial columns of the State Journal in the following article under the above caption. The contrast between the law and order conditions in Newark and the reign of disorder in Columbus could not be better demonstrated than in this article from the Ohio State Journal.

Law and order were quickly restored in Newark by her own officials and the moral support of her own people, without the aid of a regiment or brigade of state troops. Newark needed no advice to promptly have a special grand jury called. This was done without delay and the promptness of the action is shown by the indictments that have been returned against participants in the riot and lynching. These facts and this comparison with our city with the state's capital city ought to be ample occasion for the array of Columbus newspapers and correspondents to do Newark a little credit and justice after the shameful exaggerations and misrepresentations that they paraded broadcast to our city's detriment.

(Ohio State Journal)

How long are riotous conditions to continue in this city? Just so long, doubtless, as police administration is lax and proved offenders are dealt with leniently. There have been too few arrests, too few prosecutions and too few stiff sentences. Penitentiary offenses have been many, and yet the grand jury has not even been summoned. It helps the present situation little to bind suspects over to a jury which meets months hence. What is needed is the swift, sure and severe punishment of every tough who seizes this opportunity to commit a crime against person or property.

The guerilla warfare of the stone-throwers is admittedly hard to check all in a moment. But it has been going on many nights now and at least some of the ringleaders are said to be known to the authorities. Three hundred and fifty police, properly stationed and with the right sort of instructions, should be able to cope with it. If half a dozen of these reckless criminals should be sent to prison to undergo the heaviest sentences the law allows, and if the word went out that every such criminal caught would be made an example of, who believes that assaults on cars would be repeated?

The city at night is in a condition bordering upon anarchy. The situation is disgraceful and the sober sentiment of the community cannot tolerate it much longer. The need of the hour is the sternest repression of the mob spirit, and that calls for more vigorous work by the police department and more activity and severity on the part of the judicial power.

publican senator voted for the bill. Nor was a non-partisan judiciary plank put in the Republican platform, but the platform does "commend the present Ohio general assembly for its wise and effective legislation."

A bill for inspection of boilers was introduced in the house by a Republican member, Spiegel of Cincinnati, and passed in the committee. Nor is there one word on that subject in the Dick-Barton-Ellis-Taft-Harding platform. Still the platform commends "the present Ohio general assembly for its wise and effective legislation."

The platform adopted at Columbus is utterly silent on the initiative and referendum. There is in the platform a very feeble expression in favor of referring franchise grants to a vote of the people, but that is as far off of the main track to direct legislation through the initiative and referendum as tariff revision upward is from the promise in the g. o. p. platform of vote for tariff revision downward.

The only request made on behalf of labor recognized in the platform adopted at Columbus is that which relates to a workman's compensation act. An employer's liability act was passed during the last session after a hard fight and against stubborn opposition on the Republican side in both house and senate. That act was approved by Governor Harmon, as was also the bill passed to create a special commission for the purpose of making inquiry into the whole subject of employer's liability and workman's compensation, to report at next session.

Thus it is seen that four of the labor planks requested at the hands of the Columbus convention were entirely ignored, and the only one that was accepted had already been acted upon by the legislature and received the approval of Governor Harmon.

Representatives of workmen in Ohio asked the Dick-Taft-Harding convention for bread but were not even given a stone having handed to them only a verbal shadow of something that had already been given form and substance.

TEXAS DEMOCRATS IN QUEER TANGLE

AMST. TEX., Aug. 10.—The most remarkable political situation in the history of the Democratic party in Texas exists since the result of the recent primaries was made known. B. Colquhoun, the victor in the primary battle, was named through the agency of the anti-Prohibitionists, while a majority of the delegates elected to the state convention are in favor of state prohibition. The question of the platform on this subject makes the situation quite interesting, for the people have voted in favor of Mr. Colquhoun.

making the action of the state convention delegates almost mandatory. He cannot possibly endorse or run on a platform endorsing prohibition, and yet that is just what the delegates promised to adopt. It is a situation such as never before has arisen in Texas politics. Developments of a startling nature are not only possible, but in the opinion of many well informed and close observing people, they are highly probable. Of course, some peace-maker who is equal to the momentous occasion may arise and quiet the threatening disturbance before it gets to the point of a volcanic outbreak, but at this time there seems to be little chance of any peaceful solution of the problem.

IN AN UNCOMFORTABLE POSITION

OIL AND GAS NEWS

The deep sand territory in Perry and Fairfield counties fell far behind its usual record of completeness. The work under way is continued to the interior. Extensions that looked rather promising two months ago are not coming up to expectations and operators are confining their energies to locations inside defined limits. There has been no marked decline in the production of the field. The staying qualities of the wells is a redeeming feature of the Clinton sand. This alone has been the mainstay of a lot of investors. However, that alone has not been sufficient to prevent a loss to the holders of small leases operated by a company with an inflated capitalization.

There has been and still is an effort making to find production in the same formation in counties adjacent to Perry and Fairfield. Licking and Knox to the north and Hocking to the south have had more or less test work. In some of the tests light showings of oil were developed and others showed a very strong gas pressure.

Light wells are very much in evidence in the deep sand territory. In Rush Creek township, Fairfield county, the Rushville Gas & Oil Company has completed No. 1 on the J. M. Murchland, Sr., farm and has a show for a five or 10-barrel pumper in the Clinton sand. The same company's No. 2 is drilling in the top of the sand.

The Bremen Gas & Oil Company has completed No. 3 on the Albert Puff farm and has a 10 or 15-barrel pumper. The same company is starting a second test on the S. A. Black farm. There are now but seven wells in the deep sands fields, with a production of 50 or more barrels a day.

The South Liberty, Clintonian and Springfield Gas Companies are drilling in a joint test well in the canal one and a half miles west of Basil.

The Columbus Natural Gas Company has located a well on the Frank Miller farm in the southwest corner of Walnut township. Also on the Daubensmire farm, two miles south-east of Baltimore. The company will begin drilling in these two wells in the near future.

Probably one of the most progressive oil and gas companies in southeastern Ohio is the Springfield company, which seems to lead other companies in the work of drilling in wells. The company is backed by men who have the necessary capital to begin with and to whom a failure in a single location has no special significance. The other day a duster was met with on the Joseph Stes farm, near Buckeye Lake, but directly following a million and a half gasser was struck on the Bert Vorhees lease, near Gibsonville, in Hocking county.

NEW CORN CURE
A REAL MARVEL

Guaranteed and Absolutely Painless.
A corn cure that is painless and that will really do the work has finally been discovered. Heretofore, the poor sufferer from corns has been pestered with "drawing" salves and plasters that swell the corns, and has had finally to gouge out his corn and inflict upon himself still greater pain. With Hall's Painless Corn Cure all pain ceases on the first application, and then finally the corn comes right off easily and painlessly. You don't have to dig it out and run the risk of drawing blood, making your corns still more sore or getting blood poison.
Hall's Painless Corn Cure is easier to use than any other; it takes a few seconds to apply it. It is guaranteed absolutely in every case. You must be satisfied, or back goes your money.
HALL'S PAINLESS CORN CURE
Lasts longer than several packages of any other corn treatment, and you are sure to get rid of corns and bunions. Sold at 25 cents a bottle at

BARONESS

Will Share Millions Given Her By King Leopold With Her Director of Financial Affairs.

Paris, August 11. — Baroness Vaughan, the morganatic wife of the late King Leopold of Belgium, has announced her approaching marriage with Emmanuel Durioux, a retired merchant living at Neuilly-sur-Seine. Durioux has been director of Baroness Vaughan's financial affairs. Since her dramatic flight from Belgium after the death of King Leopold, which closed her regal career, the baroness, endowed with an immense fortune bestowed upon her by the king, has been living sumptuously, although in the greatest privacy, in the Chateau Balincourt, near Arronville.
The date of the marriage is not known. Baroness Vaughan is 27 years old, while Durioux is 50.
The penniless sisters of the baroness, who are living in Paris, are stupefied at the news, and express themselves as amazed that she would marry so soon after the death of the king. Although she is said to be possessed of many millions, she has turned a deaf ear to all their appeals and now they consider that their last hope has vanished.

ANNUAL REUNION OF OLD VETERANS AT BLACK HAND

The annual reunion of the old soldiers and sailors of Licking and adjoining counties, especially Muskingum county, held at the historic Black Hand on Thursday, August 11, was in the opinion of those who are supposed to know, one of the most successful ever held in the history of the association, not only in point of numbers of those in attendance but for the many enjoyments it afforded.
The place, the beautiful Black Hand, is an ideal spot for such reunions. The day was all that could be desired, and it is estimated that between 3,000 and 10,000 persons were on the grounds.
There was plenty of good music rendered during the day by several excellent bands that were in attendance, and several hours during the early part of the day were devoted to renewing old war acquaintances, relating reminiscences of the war, and in having a good time generally.
Governor Judson Harmon, who was the principal speaker of the day, arrived in Newark on the Columbus-Newark and Zanesville interurban car at ten o'clock. When the car pulled in at the interurban station, and the Governor alighted, he was greeted by a large crowd of enthusiastic admirers and for a time was kept busy shaking hands. The Governor is in the best of health and was delighted to meet the people of Newark.
After all had greeted the Governor he boarded the big automobile of Attorney James R. Fitzgibbon with Hon. W. E. Haas of Delaware, and Hon. Chas. W. Miller of this city, the Democratic candidates for Senator from this district, and Attorney W. D. Fulton and left for Black Hand. The journey was made in about half an hour. Upon the arrival of the party at the scene of the reunion Governor Harmon was rendered an immense ovation, hundreds of old soldiers crowding around him all anxious to "clash" his hand.

Aside from Governor Harmon, there was included in the list of speakers General H. A. Aldine of Columbus, Department Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, Col. W. L. Curtis, United States Pension Agent, Columbus; Hon. W. A. Ashbrook, Congressman from this district; Rev. L. C. Sparks, Attorney L. C. Russell, A. S. Mitchell and J. W. Horner of this city and Captain J. M. Scott of Cincinnati, and others.
The address of Governor Harmon, which was of a non-political nature, captivated the hundreds of old soldiers who had the pleasure of listening to his remarks and he was frequently interrupted by enthusiastic bursts of applause, while the bands rendered patriotic airs. The address is said by many who were in attendance to have been one of the best ever delivered at any reunion held by the soldiers at this place.
Senator W. E. Miller made arrangements with the interurban people to have the limited car due here at two o'clock Thursday afternoon, stop at Black Hand for the Governor, who hopes that the program will be con-

ITCHING RASH ON FACE AND NECK

Cured—Scratched Until Face was Mass of Raw Flesh—Used Cuticura and Had First Good Night's Sleep in 3 Months.

"An itching rash broke out on my face and neck, so bad that I scratched it until my face was a mass of raw flesh which kept me awake all night. After going to my family doctor, he not helping me, I tried another doctor, but without success. After doctors failed, a friend recommended the Cuticura Remedies. That night, after washing my face and neck with Cuticura Soap, I applied some Cuticura Ointment and had the first good night's sleep in three months. I used about two lots of Cuticura Soap and Ointment when you could not see a mark on my face or neck. I will gladly recommend the Cuticura Remedies to anybody. Wm. Silver, 346 West 35th St., New York, Mar. 1, 1910."
In another letter Mr. Silver says, "My case was of about two years' standing. After using Cuticura Soap and Ointment for about three days I saw a decided improvement and was entirely cured in two months."
For the prevention and treatment of itching, burning, scaling eruptions and the promotion of permanent skin and hair health, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are absolutely unrivalled in purity, efficiency and economy. A single cake of Cuticura Soap and box of Cuticura Ointment are often sufficient.
Sold throughout the civilized world. Better than any other skin cure. See Price Book, Free. Mailed free, latest Cuticura book, a Guide to the Treatment of the Skin.

Charles, who had one of his shoulders badly sprained, is also rapidly recovering from the injury.

SAW THE PARADE.

Barnes Byrnes has returned from a visit in Chicago, and while there he saw the mammoth parade of the Knights Templar, who were holding their annual convocation in Chicago. Mr. Byrnes says that the parade was so long that for four hours all traffic in the streets over which the parade passed was suspended. He saw the members of the local commandery, St. Luke's, in the parade, and says they made a very creditable showing.

Newark People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.
John W. Lippincott, 127 N. Eleventh St., Newark, O., says: "I suffered from rheumatism for a long time and often had such severe pains across my loins that I could not move until the attack passed off. There was a constant, dull ache in the small of my back and if I moved quickly or brought any strain on the muscles of my back, I was seized with sharp, knife-like twinges throughout my body. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at Crayton & Co's Drug Store and they gave me prompt relief. I was so encouraged that I continued taking this remedy until entirely free from my trouble." (From statement, RESULTS TELL.)
On Nov. 20, 1909, Mr. Lippincott said: "I cheerfully confirm my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills, as the benefit I obtained from their use has been permanent. I have never been in better health than I am at the present time."

Daddy's Bedtime Story—The Lobster and the Clam

Getting Ready to Plunge Them in Boiling Water

ONCE there was a lobster which lived near a pretty beach," said daddy to Jack and Evelyn at bedtime. "Men and women and little boys and girls went there in summer time to fish and bathe and make houses of sand. The lobster sometimes saw the little children at a distance and thought it would be nice to play with them. But there was a clam which he saw often, and the two were great friends. When the lobster saw fishermen approaching with nets, hooks or other devices for catching shellfish he would give the alarm to the clam and then swim or crawl away himself with such funny, funny motions. The clam would have laughed if he hadn't been so scared. But one day the lobster was feeling so stupid that he crawled right into a contrivance set to catch him, and the clam, which was with him, somehow got in too. They were both drawn up and before they knew it were in a boat. They sailed along until they came to a dock, and then the men in the boat took them up and carried them into a big hotel, where they were cooking dinner, and the poor clam and lobster saw the cook, in a long white apron, getting ready to plunge them in boiling water. Of course this made them desperately angry, and what do you suppose happened just that minute? A big cat which was smelling around to find what was hungry and was just smacking his lips, thinking how good lobster would taste, when that funny animal reached out a claw and closed it tight around one of the cat's paws. At the same time the clam opened up wide and closed tight on another paw."

"Meow," said the cat, only so loud it sounded like the way Jack yelled when he caught his finger in the door. Then up jumped a little dog and ran to the basket, for dogs always want to be in any fights going on. He tumbled in, and the lobster clawed him too. The cat scratched and bit and mewed. The dog barked and snapped and pawed, but the lobster and clam held on. Then the cook, hearing the commotion, came running to see what was the matter and slipped on a banana peel and fell into the basket right on top of the dog, the cat, the lobster and the clam. He got scratched and bitten and began to yell, and a policeman came running from the street and, seeing the cook sprawling on the floor and yelling, thought he was drunk, hit him with his club and, jerking him to his feet, marched him off to the station house."

"Then a little boy whose pets the dog and cat were had a bright idea. Seeing the lobster and clam would not let go and not wanting to hurt them, he took basket, cat, dog, lobster, clam and all to a little pond just back of the hotel and dumped them all in. Then the lobster swam away, the clam let go, the cat and dog jumped out, and everybody except the cook was happy."

MAYOR GAYNOR

will have passed by today. They say that a gunshot wound, it is believed, usually, manifests itself within 48 hours. It was pointed out to a number of consultation of the doctors today when the wound was carefully examined.

The mayor, asked today to see his private physician, Miss Ethel, and she was sent for. Since the shooting was his first, the mayor's home in Brooklyn, but the doctors said that it would do him no harm for the mayor to see all of the members of his family.

They noted, however, that none of the doctors was willing to be admitted to the bedside and that most of the department chiefs called at the hospital, they got only as far as the temporary office which Secretary Anderson has established. Chief of Police Hayes came over from the Jersey City jail, where he had a talk with Gallagher. The latter seemed more cheerful today and asked for the newspapers, reading carefully everything printed about his crime.

Thomas L. Gaynor, the mayor's brother, who hurried here from Springfield, O., following the shooting, left today for a business trip to Baltimore.

The doctors told me that the mayor is doing fine and that I can see him any day for a few days," he said. "I will be back Saturday evening, but I have hopes that the mayor will be able to go to the mountains not later than the latter part of next week."

Hundreds of telegrams were received from ministers and church workers today, saying that they were praying for Mayor Gaynor's recovery. The telegrams represent every denomination, Mayor Gaynor asked the doctors to permit him to walk about the room this morning while the nurses were changing the bed covers, but they refused.

Jersey City, N. J., Aug. 11. — In his cell in the Hudson county jail J. J. Gallagher, would-be assassin of Mayor Gaynor, talked freely to newspaper men today.

"I intended to kill Mayor Gaynor and that is all there is to it," said he. "But I hope he will now get well."

Gallagher then switched off to books. "My favorite author is Shakespeare," he said, "although I have read Dickens and I love his characters. Or books of today, 'Progress and Poverty' by Henry George is the only one I have read constantly. But neither Henry George nor Shakespeare's books inspired me to shoot Mayor Gaynor. It was simply the feeling that I had no other way of remedying my wrongs. I had to do something, and if I did wrong I am here to take my punishment. I do not think I was wrong and I believe that when the public knows my case fully, it will agree with me."

During his entire talk Gallagher made it apparent that all his life he had been interested in the "wrongs of the masses." "I am a follower of William Randolph Hearst," said he. "When he was a candidate for the office of mayor I voted for him and tried to get all of my friends to vote for him. I believe in him and what he says."

"Recently I was a staunch Democrat and stuck to Tammany Hall, but when I found I was not getting justice I turned to Hearst. I worked hard for Hearst. I told all my friends that I read Hearst's writings and that his teachings were the right thing. There is nothing too good for a man like Hearst. He tells the truth and should get any reward the people can give him."

Suit for Alimony.
Mrs. Jessie Hatch, through her attorneys, Smythe & Smythe, has commenced an action in probate court against Arthur C. Hatch for alimony. Mr. Hatch is now publisher of the Brazil, Ind., Democrat. The co-respondent named in the petition is a former resident of Newark. The court issued a restraining order which will prevent the defendant from disposing of his personal property until the matter is settled by the court.

Funerals in England.
At the time of Queen Victoria's funeral a writer in the Undertakers' Journal complained that, while royal burials were still conducted in an impressive manner, a sad lack of ceremonial distinguished the funerals of the nobility. "Item after item has been abandoned. Idea after idea has been dropped, each meaning a distinct loss to our business. An undertaker in the west end, referring to the recent death of a noble lord, confided to me: 'Forty years ago I buried a member of that family, and the funeral bill came to £1,250 ($6,250). Ten years later I buried another, when it came to just over £700 ($3,500). Fifteen years ago I buried a third, at a cost of £230 ($1,150), but the bill for this one did not reach £75 ($375).'"

Origin of a Famous Saying.
Euclid, who is sometimes called the father of mathematics, taught this subject in the famous school at Alexandria. Being asked one day by the king of Egypt (Ptolemy Soter) whether he could not teach him the science in a shorter way, Euclid answered in words that have been memorable ever since, "Sire, there is no royal road to learning." Not many scraps of conversation have lived, as this reply has, for 2,200 years.

There is pretty much the same difference between a theory and a fact as there is between courtship and marriage.

FEET SO SORE COULDN'T WALK DOWN STAIRS

TIZ Cured Her Quick.

If you have sore feet, tired feet, sweaty feet, lame feet, tender feet, bunions, corns, calluses or blisters, read what happened to Mrs. Crockett, of Jeffersonville. TIZ DID IT. Mr. Crockett says: "After the second treatment she walked down stairs with one foot at a time. She has not been able to walk down stairs before in past five years, except by stepping down on each step with one foot at a time. This is remarkable. Send five more boxes."

No matter what ails your feet or what under heaven you have used without getting relief, just use TIZ. It cures. It acts right off. It cures sore feet to stay cured. It's the only foot remedy ever made that acts on the principle of drawing out all the poisonous exudations, which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely close up the pores. TIZ cleans them out and keeps them clean. You will feel better the first time it's used. Use it a week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. Here is nothing on earth that can compare with it. TIZ is for sale at all druggists, 25c per box, or direct, if you wish, from Walter Luther Dedee & Co., Dodge Building, Chicago, Ill.

TURKISH WOMEN.

They Are Curiously Fastidious In Some of Their Ways.

The habits of the Turkish women of Constantinople are wonderfully fastidious. For instance, when they wash their hands at a tap from which water runs into a marble basin the fair ones will let the water run until a servant shuts it off, as much as to do this themselves would render them "unclean." They cannot open or shut a door, as the handle would be unclean.

One of these fastidious women was not long ago taking to a small niece who had just received a present of a doll from Paris. By and by the child laid the doll in the lady's lap. She was horrified and ordered the child to take it away. As the little girl would not move it and no servant was near and the lady would be defiled by touching a doll that had been brought from abroad, the only resource left her was to jump up and let the doll fall. It broke in pieces.

Another Turkish woman would not open a letter coming by post, but required a servant to break the seal and hold the missive near her that it might be read; also should her handkerchief fall to the ground it was immediately destroyed or given away, so that she might not again use it.—Exchange.

CAR STRIKE

J. F. Jones last evening, "because we do not consider it a sectional matter but one for the entire city, and, as such, coming properly before the central body. We have, however, the greatest confidence in Mr. Pretzman and his board. I have no doubt that their wisdom will be sufficient for the present problem, and if indorsement or reinforcement from us will be of any assistance, it will be given cheerfully."

Last night 20 odd reports of disturbances reached the city prison. Cars were stoned in various parts of the city, two men, working out of the West Broad street barns, were injured, and a third, on an Oak street car, was the victim of an acid thrower. A few torpedoes were placed on the tracks in Leonard avenue.

The most serious delay in traffic was caused at 11 o'clock by the placing of an obstruction on the track at Spruce and Henry streets, which derailed the front trucks of a Pennsylvania and Parsons avenue car. The company's wrecking crew was summoned.

Steam railroad men stoned two Parsons and Pennsylvania cars at Denison avenue and Spruce streets last night, and after driving the crews away, attacked the cars. Daniel Snyder, a special officer, was forcibly relieved of his mace and hat and was severely beaten.

Two cars stopped beside the Big Four tracks in Spruce street and the attack began. The crew of one turned on the power and escaped. The crew of the other left their car and ran to the offices of the company in High street. Another crew was sent later to take charge of the abandoned car.

A small crowd assembled at Neil and Marshall avenue during the evening and one of its members hurled a stone at a car. The crowd threatened the crew, but the conductor and motorman jumped off the car and dispersed it. Members of the crowd renewed the assault, but were chased away by police who arrived on the scene.

T. E. Nelson, a switchman employed by the Citizens' Telephone Company, was arrested by Charles Bender and David L. Williams, the crew of a Neil avenue car, at Neil and Buttes avenue, last night, on a charge of throwing stones at their car. Nelson denies that any stones were thrown or that he threw any.

Acting Sergeant Sandusky and

Patrolman Keeler arrested William F. Pendleton, motorman; Frank Kratkey, conductor and Frank Wilde, guard, at the B. & O. crossing in West Broad street last night, charging Pendleton with shooting with intent to kill and Kratkey and Wilde with carrying concealed weapons.

According to the statements of Sergeant Sandusky and R. H. Ward, a caller for the Panhandle, living at 125 Schultz avenue, Pendleton emptied the chambers of his revolver in West Broad street, between Stephens and Gifford avenues. Ward, his wife and his 12-year-old daughter, were walking along the sidewalk and were forced to prostrate themselves in order to get out of range of the bullets.

The police made the arrest on the car's return trip. Wilde bearded the car after the shooting. He attempted to escape, but was caught. He carried a large mace. A revolver was found in Kratkey's pocket.

Three car men were injured by flying stones thrown at their cars in West Broad street.

C. McCann, a motorman on the West Broad street line, was struck in the stomach by a stone near the Baltimore and Ohio crossing. His injuries were treated at the barns.

Motorman Shields was struck when near the same pole and a finger crushed and broken.

Conductor Moore was struck in the elbow and forced to quit work. His injury was also dressed by the company physician at the barns. At the barns it was said that showers of stones greeted the cars along the entire West Broad street route during the evening. Several of the men were struck but were able to continue work.

Harry Brown, a motorman, was arrested at West Broad street and the Big Four crossing on three charges. He is alleged to have grossly insulted a wagon load of women passengers who were riding out Broad street. When searched a blackjack was found upon him.

M. H. Brunst and Richard K. Holmes, a car crew, were taken by patrolmen from the car at Fourth street and Livingston avenue last night for running across an interurban car line without stopping their car. They were locked up at police headquarters.

It developed yesterday that Joseph Stallberg, Parsons avenue conductor, who was supposed to have been hit in the head by a brick and rendered unconscious, really suffered from an epileptic fit. He is in Mt. Carmel hospital, where his condition yesterday was said to be much improved. Stall-berg had one fit in the patrol wagon on the way to the hospital and two more soon after arriving there. He had none yesterday.

T. B. Shelley, 12 Stevens avenue, a striker, and Jacob Helzer, 37 Stevens avenue, were ordered released last night by Mayor Marshall and Director McCune when taken to police headquarters by William Keran, a car man, and a companion whose name was said to be Coats.

An effort was made to have a charge of shooting firearms within the city limits filed against the two. The mayor declared he was satisfied that the arrest was a "frame-up." Keran, since the strike began, has been in police court on two charges—one of shooting and one of assault. Mayor Marshall ordered that no further arrests be made of him.

According to Pennsylvania avenue residents a chance remark of a woman and the sudden fright of a car man started trouble at Third and Pennsylvania avenues at 7:10 last evening. A woman remarked that trouble had been started in the district north of Goodale street. The motorman of a south-bound car stopped it at once and ran to a drug store telephone, remarking that he expected to learn the extent of the trouble before continuing his trip. While his car remained at the corner a crowd gathered and two other cars were held up. The crowd vigorously hooted the car men. It was half an hour before the blockade was lifted.

The Parsons avenue district was quiet last night and there was a minimum of stone throwing. For nearly two hours there were no cars running in the street because of a holdup of traffic on the North Side. Car men said they had been made targets for many stone throwers while held up in Pennsylvania avenue. They said that six crews had quit after the trips to Pennsylvania avenue, and that this desertion explained the dearth of cars on the South Side. The South High street barn foreman said the report was untrue. He declared the car men had been unmercifully stoned.

Officers of the union emphatically deny that some of the strikers have returned to work. They say every man in the union is still loyal and the entire membership is satisfied with the course of events.

Mayor Marshall appeared at police headquarters early last evening to again take charge of police arrangements. Much criticism has been heard in connection with the extremely few arrests made by the police.

PROSECUTION CANNOT SECURE CONVICTIONS.

In the first trial by jury in police court of a prisoner charged with loitering, in connection with the street car strike, the prosecution has failed to make a case.

Ernest Arnett was released yesterday, after the jury had brought in a verdict of not guilty.

This loitering case was selected because it was, perhaps, the most flagrant of any of the 75 or more of that character on the docket. Special care was used in the selection of a jury, but the 12 men refused to find for the state.

Arnett was arrested on the night of July 25, after Patrolman Sells and Detective Norris had ordered him to move on. He was again arrested on Tuesday night, on charges of disorderly conduct and resisting an officer, and even with this fact before them, the jury failed to convict on the loitering charge. The jury was composed in part of business and professional men.

In spite of this verdict Prosecutor Kerr says he will carry the other cases of men charged with loitering to a conclusion.

There are a large number of cases of disorderly conduct on the docket. A jury last week held that crying "scab" came under this charge.

Harrison Christ, charged with throwing stones at a street car, was held awaiting the action of the grand jury, after a preliminary hearing before Police Judge Osborn yesterday. His bond was fixed at $200.

CAMPED IN THE POURING RAIN AT GRANVILLE

"It rained but that didn't matter. We had a good time just the same. In fact, we had such a good time that we will repeat the stunt next Tuesday night." So say the members of the business men's class of the Y. M. C. A.

In the face of the darkening clouds nine of the members boarded the car and went to Granville, where they enjoyed an evening's outing on the banks of the Raccoon. Pup tents were pitched, and after Charles Flory and Willis Smith had "biled the coffee" and cooked the wieners, they all sat down to a genuine camp supper by the light of the silvery moon (lightning and thunder) and ate.

After spending the evening in songs, with I. M. Phillips the principal soloist, some left for home, while the balance crawled in to sleep, or rather to stay, for between Harry Scott's and Ed Larason's noise looking for a humming bird feather, to put under their heads for pillows, the balance of the party could not sleep. Then at 4 a. m. Willis Smith routed out the bunch, sounding the morning salute. Promptly at 4:01 a. m. Ed Larason pulled down the tents, but the men got even by making him hustle for the firewood.

The men arrived in Newark this morning in time for their work and they say they had the best time ever. They will return to the same spot next Tuesday afternoon and hope to have a party of 30 men at that time.

Nashville, Aug. 11.—Governor Patterson has commuted the sentence of Marcellus Rinehart, the Montgomery county night rider, to life imprisonment. Rinehart was convicted of the murder of Rufus Hunter and sentenced to death.

PIONEERS OF HEBRON ENJOY GOOD HEALTH

Mrs. Anna Andrews Celebrates 83rd Birthday Anniversary—News of a Hustling Little City.

In the Granville news notes of last week's Advocate, it boasts of having three real pioneers living in the village, whose total ages reaches the number of 259. Hebron people think Granville is away behind when compared to this hustling little village. Hebron has at present living there and with the exception of one all in good health, the following venerable pioneers: Mrs. Polly Green, 99; Mrs. Martha Vanastal, 90; Mrs. Esther Wells, 89; Mrs. Mary Planey, 85; Mrs. E. K. Black, 85; Mrs. Ellen Cully, 84; Mrs. Anna Andrews, 83; Mrs. Mary Whorton, 82; Mrs. Mary Myer, 82 and Steve G. H. 85.

Tuesday, Aug. 9, was the 83d anniversary of Mrs. Anna Andrews' birth, and to help make the day a pleasant one for her, a few of her old neighbors met at her home on Basin street at the noon hour with baskets filled with all the good things of the season, and celebrated the occasion with a sumptuous dinner. A number of gifts were received, also about 40 postcards, as remembrances of the day. The social hours were delightful ones passed in the dear old lady's company, and on departing all expressed the wish that she may live to see many more such happy birthdays.

After spending several months with her daughter on the east side, Mrs. J. P. Swisher has now returned to her home on Basin street, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Polly Green, who will remain for an indefinite time.

Mrs. Vetch of Newark is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. A. Hickerson on West Main street.

Augustus Hickerson, who resigned as chief engineer at the power house, has accepted a similar position at Akron and will leave for that city about August 15.

Miss Lois Lorenz is visiting at the pleasant home of Mr. S. Buell, near Licking.

H. D. Burch and daughter, Miss Rosa, entertained the Misses Vesta Swawa, Mildred Lydie and Helen Clunis at dinner last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. White were guests of James Pugh and wife Sunday at Kirkorsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jared Lemley left here Wednesday for an extended visit with his brother at Omaha, Neb.

Mrs. L. W. Jennings of Columbus is spending a few days with her sister Mrs. Mary Lemley.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam P. Wagner of Lancaster, C. C. March of Columbus, and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Mills of Jersey, were here in attendance at the funeral of M. W. Davis last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harter have returned home after a pleasant visit with friends at Zanesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Huffman spent Sunday with James Kirk and wife on Basin street.

Mrs. D. P. Burch and Miss Myrtle Davis attended the Chautauqua at Summerland Beach Tuesday and attended "Hiawatha," the Indian Passion play in the evening. They were guests of Mrs. Kathryn Stimmet at White cottage until Wednesday evening.

Miss Clara Rees left for an extended visit with the families of Rev. H. H. Elvinger at West Jefferson, Rev. Earl Kemper and Rev. Mr. Pierce at Elviria.

Mrs. John Hueston of Newark is the guest of her son, Edward Hueston, on West Main street.

Jared Lemley and wife and Mrs. L. W. Jennings were guests of B. R. Lemley and wife, Tuesday.

K. C. White purchased an auto of C. A. Pence this week.

Mrs. Emil Lutz entertained the members of the W. C. T. U. Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Lucy Sawyer and daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Burns of Gloucester, were guests of Mrs. B. F. Seibert Tuesday and Wednesday.

The condition of Mrs. Jacob Funtz who fell and fractured her hip, is considered very critical.

SUMMER HAIR DRESSING.

Ask Evans' Drug Store for Parisian Sage, if You Want the Best.

Almost everybody in Newark knows that there is no preparation for the hair that can compare with Parisian Sage.

It cures dandruff, stops falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back.

It puts radiance and lustre into that dull, lifeless hair that many women possess, and does it in a few days.

It makes hair grow; prevents hair from turning gray and is without doubt the most refreshing and invigorating hair tonic in the world.

It is daintily perfumed and is not in the least sticky or greasy.

In summer, people of refinement use it regularly, because it keeps the scalp cool and free from odor of perspiration.

On March 25, 1910, Lulu D. Fix, of Raphine, Va., wrote: "Parisian Sage is a wonderful hair restorer; it stopped my hair from falling out and stopped my scalp from itching; also cured the dandruff. I only used one bottle, but I like it so much I am going to use more."

Parisian Sage is sold by druggists everywhere and by Erman's Drug Store for 50 cents a large bottle. Mail orders filled, charges prepaid, by American Makers, Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

INDIANS' PRIDE.

Native Reserve and Conservatism Keep Them Apart From Whites.

Even among the Five Civilized Tribes there still remain many communities wholly full blood. These people drift together, following their own ideas of life, speaking their own language and retiring before the whites with the same strange reserve and pride that characterized them in their wild state.

Although claiming the name of several Christian denominations and following certain beliefs with devoutness, their ways of thinking, their dislike of innovation and their aversion to work have made them withdraw to the mountain districts. Whether this so called reserve comes from pride or a distrust of the white man or timidity or merely a stubborn conservatism, it produces the same result, the backward and nonprogressive Indian.

There is, too, a certain mystic quality that holds the Indian aloof, says the Southern Workman—a quality that we do not understand and with which there is little sympathy in our everyday life. He is so much of a philosopher that he looks upon our strenuous life with some contempt, dismissing our efforts for personal comfort and material advancement with the remark that "the white man is heap trouble to himself." While people call him lazy because he does not care to exert himself for those things which seem important to whites, yet to some religious ceremonial or some artistic expression his application is persistent, and the "patience of an Indian" has passed into a proverb.

WORKED LIKE A CHARM.

She Joined a Card Club in Order to Forget Her Work.

An Atchison woman who found the monotony of dishwashing, cooking and laundry work proving too much for sanity was urged to join a card club. "It will take your mind off your work," she was told, and so she joined. In order to attend she had to get up that morning an hour earlier to get her work done; a neighbor girl was hired to stay with the baby, and when, flustered, nervous and tired, she left the house fifteen minutes late she was followed by the screams of her three children because they couldn't be taken along. But she had her mind taken off her work at the card party. Of that there is no doubt, for when she made a mislay her partner, a perfect lady, walked right over her, then picked her up and shook her, and then chewed on her for fifteen minutes. She became so frightened that the little wits she had under her hair fled, and she made another mislay with another partner, and this woman, also a perfect lady, talked to her in a way the woman should have been ashamed to talk to a dog. It was more than she could endure, and, weeping like a sprinkling cart, she got up and went home.

"It did even more than it promised," she told her husband. "Nothing has ever happened to me in all my life that so effectively took my mind off my work. Why, there were times when I even forgot I had you and all the children."—Atchison Globe.

Athletics and the Unfit.
Those who are unfit should not indulge in athletic games is a warning by Dr. Woods Hutchinson in Outlook.

A boy, for instance, is a little weak after a mild attack of infectious fever, pneumonia, influenza or tonsillitis, and his heart is beating faster and more violently than it should on exertion. But the team wants him or he wants a record, or both, and away he goes into training.

"Suddenly one day the heart can no longer drive on its overload of blood, and down goes the runner or oarsman in an attack of heart failure," and athletics get all the discredit.

The same danger lies when there is no training, the sport being purely informal. It lies also where the girl just convalescent persists in taking part in a long anticipated dance. Only that phase of common sense which is manifested in common prudence is necessary to avoid such perils.

His Other Name.

The candidate for the place of coachman had been weighed and was not wanting, according to his new mistress' lights. Then the question of his name, which was Patrick, came up. The mistress objected to it in her heart, so she explained that it was her custom always to call her coachman by his family name. Had he any objections?

"Not the slightest, ma'am."
"What is your last name, Patrick?"
"Fitzpatrick, ma'am."

Anchor.

A little chap four years of age met with the misfortune to have his hat blown into the river. When he reached home his father said to him:
"It's a wonder you didn't blow overboard too."
"I couldn't," was the quick response. "I was fastened to my feet!"

Acute Sense of Hearing.

Knew the Outcome.

Sympathetic Father—Pardoned from Harry forever, have you? Well, perhaps it's just as well not to see each other for a day or two.—Life.

COMFORTABLE AND PRETTY.
The Russian blouse fad has invaded the world of negligees, and a new design on these lines. Fine white batiste was the material employed, and the trimming is batiste embroidery, with Greek key design done in pink. These embroideries come in a variety of colors, and one may choose to please one's own fancy. The cut of the negligee, however, is good and becoming.

The man who is his own best friend is a new ideal.

MET IN NEWARK WED IN CHICAGO BRIDE 70 GROOM 23

Widow of Attorney A. W. Train Marries Assyrian Linen Salesman. Bride is Quite Wealthy.

Meeting a 23 years old Assyrian linen salesman, James Dibs, in Newark on Tuesday, Mrs. Mary Train, aged 70, of Zanesville, Ohio, went to Chicago where the two were married yesterday.

Mrs. Train, who gave her age as 70, said she lived in San Diego, Cal., and estimated her wealth in the millions. She owns property in the west, and has a monthly income from rents of $2000. She is the widow of A. W. Train, once a prominent Ohio lawyer.

A press dispatch from Chicago says that James Dibs made application for the license but Clerk Salmonson called a halt when he noted the age of the prospective bride.

Salmonson questioned her closely, but in the end issued the license and the wedding ceremony was performed by Judge Pond.

"Don't you know that in most cases where young men marry old women they are after money?" inquired Mr. Salmonson.

"I would not marry for money and I do not believe that Mr. Dibs would," responded Mrs. Train.

A Zanesville message says the bride is A. W. Train's widow and that she has been living at a hotel in the City.

San Diego, Cal., Aug. 11.—Mrs. Mary D. Train, who was married in Chicago to a well known in this city, although she has not lived here for two years. At her residence in Second street it was said that Mrs. Train's home was in Zanesville, O. and that she had a married daughter in New York City. She owns much property in this city.

HORSE JUMPED INTO RAVINE

Became Scared and Ran Away—Farmer Residing Near Lock Fell From Load of Oats.

Lock, Aug. 11.—A fine horse belonging to Hagen station residing near this place, ran away Tuesday and jumped by doing into a deep ravine near the Douglas farm. The animal's back was broken and it was mercifully relieved of its suffering by a rifle bullet. Hagen was working with threshers on the Douglas farm when the accident occurred.

Gail Hatfield, a farmer, fell from a load of oats last Wednesday and sustained a fracture of one of the bones in his left arm. Another bone was dislocated by the fall. He was taken to his home, where a surgeon reduced the fracture and dislocation.

Miss Ethel Edward visited with Newark friends last week.

W. D. Stoughton had a valuable horse die of lockjaw Monday.

Clinton Dustin and family visited at Newton Shultz's home Sunday.

Morris Mitchell is at Mt. Vernon visiting with relatives.

Newton Shultz was at Urica Sunday. Alexander and Lester Myers of Alexandria were the guests of their parents here Sunday.

Mrs. Josie Shultz and children were at Mt. Vernon Monday.

Miss Marguerite Peland is visiting at Mrs. Ida Mitchell's home.

Miss Helen Brexill was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Perfect, at Croton, last week.

Joanette Hatfield is on the sick list. Mrs. W. D. Stoughton and Mrs. Dallas Carver visited at Mrs. Hand's at Urica Thursday.

Mr. Steen and Mr. Bazley, who have been boarding at Mr. Shultz's the past two months returned to Purdy Sunday.

Manual Granite was a Newark visitor last week.

HON. W. J. BRYAN

Addressed Large Audience Wednesday Afternoon at Summerland Beach Chautauqua.

Hon. Wm. J. Bryan of Nebraska spoke to an enormous audience at the Horse Lake Chautauqua at Summerland Beach Wednesday afternoon which was estimated at over 10,000 people. Many Newarkites were in attendance and listened to the distinguished statesman deliver his famous address "Principle of Peace."

Mr. Bryan reached Newark at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning over the Pennsylvania lines, where he was met by a committee and escorted to the suburban depot where he caught a car for Blue Lake Park. After several hours spent in motoring about the lake he enjoyed dinner at the cottage of a friend and delivered his lecture at 2 o'clock, leaving afterwards for Crooksville, Perry county, to attend a banquet. Today he will address an audience of farmers at Gallipolis.

POSTMASTER'S PREMONITION OF TROUBLE

Cambridge, O., Aug. 11.—The Bysville postoffice robbery has developed a number of unusual features, the strangest of which is the premonition of Postmaster C. R. Austin. The night before the robbery, while on his way home, it occurred to him that he had better go to the office and see if everything was secure for the night. This is something Austin had not done since his appointment.

Another queer incident, which was a piece of good luck for the robbers, was the fact that when they entered the stable of John Nicholson they passed the still of a vicious horse and selected the one in the next stall. Nicholson stated that had the men tried to harness the ugly tempered horse, some one would have undoubtedly been kicked to death.

Two strangers who have been in the vicinity of Bysville for several days, and who are now mysteriously missing, are suspected. Descriptions of the men have been spread broadcast and officers have been asked to look for them.

The safe blowers broke open a heavy safe and stole a number of blank checks to use in muffling the sound of the explosion.

Blowmounds belonging to George Welch of Newark were sent for but through some mistake, Welch and Joseph Clem went to Conesville, Coshocton county, where they understood they were to be met by someone in an auto to be conveyed to Bysville. Their dogs were not used.

Struck a Rich Mine.
S. W. Bonds, of Coal City, Ala., says he struck a perfect mine of health in Dr. King's New Life Pills for they cured him of Liver and Kidney Trouble after 12 years of suffering. They are the best pills on earth for Constipation, Malaria, Headache, Dyspepsia, Debility, etc. at P. D. Hall's druggist.

DONATION DAY AT BUSINESS GIRLS' CLUB

Will be held on Saturday of this week in the afternoon and evening at the club house, No. 15 North Fifth street. This campaign designed to practically fill the place in the community of a Y. W. C. A., only being more comprehensive in its scope, deserves the encouragement and financial aid of every one. To the young men and boys of our city the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. has been incalculable; it is not time to extend like benefits to the young women and girls of the community.

Last week Mrs. Allen of Cleveland, who organized and managed for many years the Golden Rule Home of that city, called to inspect our work and pronounced it good as far as it has gone, but she opened our eyes to larger possibilities than had been contemplated, and fired us with greater enthusiasm for achievement than we had entertained, and after hearing from her of conditions met and surmounted in the work in Cleveland, we are more than ever sure that this movement in Newark is in the right direction.

We trust that our friends will remember us on Saturday with substantial aid in the way of house furnishing articles; anything of the kind being acceptable. To enumerate a few things would mention knives, forks, teaspoons, tablespoons (are using the ten-cent article which is quite presentable) two-yard tablecloths, napkins, sheets, pillow cases, blankets, comforts, towels, dresser scarfs, centerpieces, pictures, dishes, provisions and in fact as before stated anything useful about the house.

We want to sell five hundred membership tickets at $1.00 each and we want the patronage of our friends at our table for dinner or lunch. In this connection would ask that anyone acquiring certificates in the piano contest now taking place will kindly either vote then, in for The Business Girls' Club or enclose them in stamped envelope and send to our address for us to vote. We need a piano but wish to use the money you give us for other needs and in this way you can help us to the piano very easily.

Don't forget Saturday, afternoon and evening.

AN IDEAL TONIC LAXATIVE.

Seaver's Laxative Tonic Tablets Are a Blessing to All Sufferers From Chronic Constipation.

The glad tidings will be gratefully received by thousands of suffering women as one of the greatest blessings of the century, that at last there is now being prepared an infallible remedy for that most neglected of all ailments, CONSTIPATION.

A relief and positive cure is within the reach of every sufferer and a fair trial may be had for the small sum of 25 cents.

A single box of Seaver's Laxative Tonic Tablets will convince any fair minded person that the remedy they have looked for in vain is now to be obtained at the Erman & Son's drug store.

These wonderful little tablets produce results right from the first and in an incredibly short time the functions of the bowels and liver will be found working in the manner that nature intended they should.

Try a box of Seaver's Laxative Tonic Tablets with the understanding that if no relief is obtained your money will be refunded as cheerfully as you paid it.

The lazy man never quite gets rid of the spring fever.

The hardest work in the world is to get along without it.

WILL OPEN A NEW SHOE STORE ABOUT SEPT. 1

The Advocate always takes pride in chronicling the success of a bustling business man, but nevermore so than when the man is a citizen of Newark. Messrs. Fred L. Jones and C. H. Weston, two of Newark's best known citizens, are candidates for recognition in the business world at the hands of Newark and Licking county, and for that matter of all Central Ohio.

Mr. Jones, who has been connected with the King shoe store in this city for more than thirty years, and Mr. C. H. Weston, who has been connected with the same store for a period of 25 years, have formed a partnership and have purchased the stock of shoes of the Jones-Evans store in this city, and will open a new store in Newark in the near future. Both these gentlemen are thoroughly versed in the shoe business and as they have hundreds of friends, will do a fine business. They have leased the room formerly occupied by the Collins drug store, on North Third street, and will occupy it about the first of September. The work of invoicing the Jones-Evans stock will commence on Monday of next week.

BAD ACCIDENT ON THE B. & O.

A bad accident occurred on the Central Ohio division of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad on Wednesday afternoon. While the first section of train 21 was moving along at a fair rate of speed about one mile east of Barnesville five cars loaded with steel were derailed and blocked the main track until 6:30 o'clock. Train 24 had to be detoured between Cambridge and Belaire via the Pennsylvania lines. Charles Fleming, a colored man, whose home is in Nashville, Tenn., and who was beating his way on the train, was seriously injured about the head and shoulders. He was taken to the hospital at Wheeling, where his injuries were attended to. The physicians are unable to say at this time whether his injuries will prove fatal or not.
